

GDL changes effective May 1, 2010

Pursuant to the provisions of P.L. 2009, c.37, known as “Kyleigh’s Law,” effective May 1, 2010 all drivers under age 21, who are subject to the requirements of New Jersey’s Graduated Driver License (GDL), which includes those drivers possessing a special learners permit, examination permit or probationary (formerly provisional) license, must display a reflectorized decal on each license plate (front/back) of any motor vehicle they operate.

Details of these mandatory decals are as follows:

- Each 1 ½ inch by 1 inch, reflectorized decal is red in color and made with removable, 3M Dual Lock® material
- One decal must be displayed on the upper left corner of the front license plate and one on the upper left corner of the rear license plate
- Failure to display the decals during operation of a vehicle by a learner’s permit, an examination permit or probationary license holder, who is subject to the GDL requirements, is a violation subject to a $100 fine. See N.J.S.A. 39:3-13.8.
- Decals will be available at local motor vehicle agencies on April 12, $4 per pair (initial or replacement); decals sold as pairs only
- Drivers who are not subject to Kyleigh's Law should remove decals prior to operating the vehicle
- Refer to instructions for attaching decals to apply to license plates

Graduated Driver License restrictions

In addition to the decal requirement, effective May 1, 2010, New Jersey GDL drivers will also be subject to the following restrictions:

- May not operate a motor vehicle after 11:01 p.m. and before 5:00 a.m.
- May not use a hand-held or hands-free interactive, wireless communication device
- Unless over age 21, GDL drivers may only drive with the following passengers:
  - Special Permit Holders:
    - Supervising driver who is over 21 and licensed to drive for at least three (3) years
    - Parent(s), guardian(s) or dependent(s)
    - One additional passenger
  - Examination Permit Holders:
    - Supervising driver who is over 21 and licensed to drive for at least three (3) years
    - Parent(s), guardian(s) or dependent(s)
    - One additional passenger unless accompanied by a parent or guardian
  - Probationary (formerly Provisional) License Holder:
    - Parent(s), guardian(s) or dependent(s)
    - One additional passenger unless accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- Failure to abide by any GDL restriction during operation of a vehicle by a learner’s permit, an examination permit or probationary license holder, who is subject to the GDL requirements, is a violation subject to a $100 fine. See N.J.S.A. 39:3-13.8
